The Special Needs Trust Network Adds Nationally Recognized Legal Expert to its Board of Directors

Denver, Colo. – The Special Needs Trust Network (SNTN), a pooled trust for people with disabilities, has added John Campbell as a Board Member and Legal Advisor. Mr. Campbell is a leading Elder Law attorney practicing in Denver, Colorado.

John Campbell, Esq., CELA, MSCC, is the founder and principal attorney of the Law Offices of John J. Campbell, P.C. and has practiced law since 1986, specializing in Elder Law since 1996.

Mr. Campbell is certified as an Elder Law Attorney by the National Elder Law Foundation and is a Medicare Set-Aside Consultant certified through the International Commission on Health Care Certification. He is licensed to practice law in Colorado and is also licensed and on inactive status in Missouri. He is a member of the Colorado Bar Association (Trust & Estate Section and Elder Law Section), the Arapahoe County Bar Association, the Missouri Bar Association (inactive status), the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, and the National Alliance of Medicare Set-Aside Professionals. He is a former Co-Chair of the Colorado Bar Association Elder Law Section; a Fellow of the Colorado Bar Foundation; and serves on the Colorado Bar Association Board of Governors and its Executive Committee.

His areas of concentration include elder law; estate, disability and long term care planning; probate; guardianship and conservatorship; Medicare, Medicaid, Medicare Set-Aside Arrangements, and the preservation of public benefits in catastrophic third party liability and worker's compensation settlements. Mr. Campbell has published numerous articles and has presented numerous seminars on issues relating to Elder Law across the country.
